Harvard College will allow students to apply for admission to the Class of 2026 without requiring SAT or ACT test scores, or SAT subject tests, which are normally recommended. Students who do not submit standardized testing this coming year will not be disadvantaged in the application process. Your application will be considered on the basis of what you have presented. Please choose one option below:

- I have submitted or will submit SAT or ACT scores, and would like them to be considered as part of my application
- I would like my application considered without SAT or ACT scores

For the following questions, please place the letter or number indicating your choice in the space(s) provided.

Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from 9th grade (or the international equivalent) forward, whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct, that results in a disciplinary action? (Please be aware that the existence of a disciplinary violation will not automatically disqualify anyone from admission. As with all information provided in the application, we will consider your response in the context of our whole person review. We are primarily interested in learning the details of the incident from your perspective.)

- Yes
- No

If you selected “Yes” please give the approximate date(s) of each incident, explain the circumstances, and reflect on what you learned from the experience.

Have you ever been convicted of, or pled guilty or no contest to, any felony or misdemeanor, other than:

- An arrest or other detention that did not result in a conviction, or in which a conviction was vacated;
- A first conviction for any of the following misdemeanors: drunkenness, simple assault, speeding, minor traffic violations, affray or disturbance of the peace; or
- Any misdemeanor conviction that occurred more than five years before your application for admission, unless you were also sentenced to imprisonment, or were convicted of any additional offense within the five year period.

Note that you are not required to answer “yes” to this question, or provide an explanation, if the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, destroyed, erased, impounded, or otherwise ordered by a court to be kept confidential.

- Yes
- No

If you selected “Yes” please provide the details of your criminal conviction or adjudication and reflect on what you learned from the experience.

Additional Essay: You may wish to include an additional essay if you feel the college application forms do not provide sufficient opportunity to convey important information about yourself or your accomplishments. You may write on a topic of your choice, or you may choose from one of the following topics:

- Unusual circumstances in your life
- Travel, living, or working experiences in your own or other communities
- What you would want your future college roommate to know about you
- An intellectual experience (course, project, book, discussion, paper, poetry, or research topic in engineering, mathematics, science, or other modes of inquiry) that has meant the most to you
- How you hope to use your college education
- A list of books you have read during the past twelve months
- The Harvard College Honor Code declares that we “hold honesty as the foundation of our community.” As you consider entering this community that is committed to honesty, please reflect on a time when you or someone you observed had to make a choice about whether to act with integrity and honesty.
- The mission of Harvard College is to educate our students to be citizens and citizen-leaders for society. What would you do to contribute to the lives of your classmates in advancing this mission?
- Each year a substantial number of students admitted to Harvard defer their admission for one year or take time off during college. If you decided in the future to choose either option, what would you like to do?
- Harvard has long recognized the importance of student body diversity of all kinds. We welcome you to write about distinctive aspects of your background, personal development or the intellectual interests you might bring to your Harvard classmates.

FOR STUDENTS APPLYING FROM SCHOOLS OUTSIDE THE U.S. AND CANADA (regardless of citizenship)

When will your secondary school leaving or qualifying examination results be available to Harvard?

_____ Month/Day/Year

What specific plans do you have, if any, for using the education you hope to receive?

We encourage applicants to have an admissions interview when and where it is possible. Please see the international interview page on our website to determine whether interviews are available in your country. If an interviewer is not sufficiently close to you to make an appointment possible, the absence of an interview will not adversely affect your candidacy. If you live in an area where interviews are available, please contact intlinterview@fas.harvard.edu for information on how to schedule an interview.

If interviews are available in your area, have you had or have you scheduled an admissions interview?

- Yes _____

WhenWhereWith Whom?

- No, but I plan to do so _____

WhenWhereWith Whom? (If known)

- No, there are no interviews available where I live.

Statement on Consent regarding sensitive personal data: I am aware of the information about how Harvard College uses sensitive personal data in the admissions process. By submitting my application, I consent to Harvard's processing sensitive personal data about me in order to evaluate my application for admission and my eligibility for financial aid, if applicable. (For more information, please visit: <https://college.harvard.edu/admissions/apply/international-applicants/consent-regarding-sensitive-personal-data>.)

Important Information about Early Admission

- Students applying to Harvard under the Early Action program are not permitted to apply to other private universities' Early Action and Early Decision programs in the fall. Harvard will rescind any offer of admission to a student who does so.
- Students are allowed to apply in the fall to public institutions under rolling or other non-binding programs, and they may apply to colleges under Interim Decision programs that inform applicants of admission after January 1. They may also apply to any institution under its Regular Action program and to foreign colleges and universities on any application schedule.
- After students receive notification from Harvard's Early Action program (around mid-December), they are free to apply to any institution under any plan, including binding programs such as Early Decision II.
- Students admitted under an Early Decision program at another college must withdraw any pending application to Harvard and are not eligible for admission.

Third Party Access to Application Materials: Please be aware that Harvard, like most schools, provides application materials and information to outside companies who help Harvard collect, review and process data for applications. Those companies also provide materials and information to us. Examples of those companies include testing organizations, transcript request services, portfolio submission services, and services that review materials for plagiarism, in addition to application processors. We also provide application information to alumni who interview applicants.
