Counselor section

The mid-year report shares your student's performance at the midpoint of the school year, usually represented by first semester or trimester grades.

Keep in mind that not every college requires the mid-year report. Refer to the requirements grid for information about which colleges do and do not use this form.

Submit this form as soon as mid-year grades are available. Please attach the student's current or most recent official transcript, including courses in progress and a transcript legend.
