Evaluation

How long have you known this student and in what context?

What are the first words that come to your mind to describe this student?

Please attach a short evaluation (1000 words or less) that will help colleges differentiate this student from others. We especially welcome a broad-based assessment and encourage you to consider describing or addressing:

- The student's academic, extracurricular, and personal characteristics.
- Relevant context for the student's performance and involvement, such as particularities of family situation or after-school obligations, either positive or negative.
- Observed problematic behaviors, perhaps separable from academic performance, that an admission committee should explore further.

Counselor evaluations often provide invaluable context to a student's application. We recognize, however, that you may not be able to provide one. If you will not be providing a personal written evaluation, please check the box below to inform our member institutions that you will not supply a written evaluation.

☐ I will not be sending an evaluation for this student.
